

"création originale de TOMI UNGERER"

ASSOCIATION "REGARDS D'ENFANTS"

Contest rules "Tell me about Human rights" 2011-2012 Organised by the association Regards d'Enfants 58 Avenue des Vosges – 67000 Strasbourg France

To participate in the contest, you must respect the rules shown below:

- Anyone may enter the contest: individuals of any age, family school group, association, etc...
- Your story must not exceed 650 words.
- The story can be written in any language, but you have to enclose a French translation.
- Handwritten or typed (and/or illustrated) on any other medium (used your imagination...!)
- Dead line for entry: Sunday 22nd of January 2012 up to midnight.
- Send your stories by letter post : Association Regards d'Enfants, 58 avenue des Vosges – 67000 Strasbourg France
- By mail : associationregardsdeenfants@gmail.com

All stories that do not respect those rules will not be considered by the jury.

Suggested structure for a story:

1. INTRODUCTION

Once upon a time, long ago, the story I am about to recount took place....

Where: the action takes place in a given place or a country

When: what period of time

Who: who are the principal characters (a man, a woman, young old

2. DEVELOPMENT

What happen: What event took place, what are the events.

How: What are the consequences and how were the events overcome.

3. CONCLUSION

End of the story, it can be surprising, humoristic or classic.

Visit our website www.regardsdenfants.com and the Facebook page Regards d'Enfants.